The Return Customer

A guest of the Marriott hotel discovered that her sister had just died. She was upset and shared her sadness with a hotel employee. The employee, named Charles, took a sympathy card to the staff and had all of them sign it. He gave it to her with a piece of hot apple pie.

The guest wrote a letter of thanks to the President of the hotel chain. She wrote,

"Mr. Marriott, I'll never meet you. And I don't need to meet you. Because I met Charles, I know what you stand for. I want to assure you that as long as I live, I will stay at your hotels."

You know, Christian hospitality is more than just passing on kindness. It's an act of sharing God's love to those we come into contact with each and every day.

Matthew 5:16

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

I love you all,

Tim
