The Most You Can Give

I once heard a story about a boy named Tommy. Tommy was only 6 years old when the church van began picking him up on Sunday mornings from the housing project where he lived. He soon realized that the people at the church were different from those with whom he normally spent time.

After attending the church for almost two years, Tommy began to realize his lost condition. One Sunday morning before the service he found the preacher and asked him what he needed to do to be saved. The preacher explained and Tommy gave his life to Jesus.

During the offering that morning when the plate was passed Tommy's way, he placed the offering plate on the floor and stood in it. When Tommy was asked what he was doing, Tommy's reply was, "I don't have any money so I give myself."

Some of us possess more than others, but before God, no one has any more to offer than anyone else. That's because the most any of us can offer God is ourselves.

Romans 12:1

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God--this is your true and proper worship.

I love you all,
Tim
