Jesus Is My Stunt Double

Actor Kevin Bacon gave this account of a conversation with his 6-year-old son after he watched Footloose for the first time:

"Hey, Dad, you know that thing in the movie where you swing from the rafters of that building? That's really cool, how did you do that?" I said, "Well, I didn't do that part--it was a stunt man." "What's a stunt man?" he asked. "That's someone who dresses like me and does things I can't do." "Oh," he replied and walked out of the room looking a little confused.

A little later he said, "Hey, Dad, you know that thing in the movie where you spin around on that gym bar and land on your feet? How did you do that?" I said, "Well, I didn't do that. It was a gymnastics double." "What's a gymnastics double?" he asked. "That's a guy who dresses in my clothes and does things I can't do."

There was silence from my son, then he asked in a concerned voice, "Dad, what did you do?" "I got all the glory," I sheepishly replied.

Jesus dressed in my clothes when He took on human flesh, and then He did things I couldn't do by fulfilling all of the righteous requirements of the law. And what did I do? I accepted all of the glory His sacrifice provided for me.

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

I love you all,
Tim
