The Peacemaker

I read a story this past week I want to share with you.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Jones were "on the outs" over something that had gone on for so long, neither of them could remember where it started. This deeply concerned Brother Brown, so he prayed that he might be a peacemaker. He then called Smith and asked, "What do you think of Jones?" "He's the meanest crank in the neighborhood! But I have to admit that he's very kind to his family," said Smith.

The next day Brown went to Jones and inquired, "Do you know what Smith said about you?" "No, but I can imagine how he would lie about me!" "This may surprise you, but he said you're very kind to your family." "What? Did Smith say that?" "Yes, he did." "Well, if you hadn't told me, I wouldn't believe it." "What do you think of Smith?" asked Brother Brown. "Truthfully, I believe he's a lowdown scalawag, but you have to admit that he's very honest in business." "Yes, there's no getting around that; in business he's a man you can trust."

The next day Brother Brown called on Smith again. "You know what Jones said about you? He claims you're a fellow that really can be trusted in business, and that you're scrupulously honest." "You mean it?" "Yes, I do," said Brown. "Well of all things," replied Smith with a happy smile.

The next Sunday the former "enemies" nodded to each other. Brown continued his "meddling" until the next church potluck when Smith and Jones shook hands and sat down at the same table to share a meal together.

Matthew 5:9

⁹ "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God."

I love you all, Tim
