A Word From Bruce

Joseph is probably one of my favorite characters in the Old Testament. When I think about integrity I think about Joseph. He found himself in various situations where he could have turned the tables and caused it to work out better for him but he chose to live by faith. Basically, that is where integrity comes from ... a strong faith that God will see you through when you live by faith. I have enjoyed these illustrations on integrity, hope you will too.

As professional golfer Ray Floyd was getting ready to tap in a routine 9-inch putt, he saw the ball move ever so slightly. According to the rule book, if the ball moves in this way the golfer must take a penalty stroke. Yet consider the situation. Floyd was among the leaders in a tournament offering a top prize of $108,000. To acknowledge that the ball had moved could mean he would lose his chance for big money.

Writer David Holahan describes as follows what others might have done: "The athlete ducks his head and flails wildly with his hands, as if being attacked by a killer bee; next, he steps back from the ball, rubbing his eye for a phantom speck of dust, all the while scanning his playing partners and the gallery for any sign that the ball's movement has been detected by others. If the coast is clear, he taps the ball in for his par. Ray Floyd, however, didn't do that. He assessed himself a penalty stroke and wound up with a bogey on the hole.

Several years ago, in Long Beach, California, a fellow went into a fried chicken place and bought a couple of chicken dinners for himself and his date late one afternoon. The young woman at the counter inadvertently gave him the proceeds from the day-a whole bag of money (much of it cash) instead of fried chicken. After driving to their picnic site, the two of them sat down to open the meal and enjoy some chicken together. They discovered a whole lot more than chicken--over $800! But he was unusual. He quickly put the money back in the bag. They got back into the car and drove all the way back. Mr. Clean got out, walked in, and became an instant hero. By then the manager was frantic. The guy with the bag of money looked the manager in the eye and said, "I want you to know I came by to get a couple of chicken dinners and wound up with all this money. Here." Well, the manager was thrilled to death. He said, "Oh, great, let me call the newspaper. I'm gonna have your picture put in the local newspaper. You're the most honest man I've heard of." To which they guy quickly responded, "Oh no, no, don't do that!" Then he leaned closer and whispered, "You see, the woman I'm with is not my wife...she's uh, somebody else's wife."

YOUTH CORNER

We are just a few weeks into summer. I am sure that all of you have enjoyed your time off from school. It is always nice to take time off from school, or from our jobs and just relax. During the summer as you relax and do things that you want to do, beware, because the devil does not take the summer off. Temptations are still everywhere and we seem to fall into temptations when we are relaxed and comfortable.

1 Peter 5:8 says "Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." What was true in the New Testament times is equally true in our own time. Satan tempts his prey and then devours them. As believing Christians, we must beware, even during our relaxed times when we think everything is going good.

A Prayer

Lord, strengthen my walk with You. Evil comes in many disguises, and sometimes it is only with Your help that I can recognize right from wrong. Your presence in my life enables me to choose truth and to live life pleasing to you. May I always live in Your presence. Amen

The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations.

2 Peter 2:9
