A WORD FROM BRUCE

A friend of journalist David Halberstam was planning a visit to Japan. It would be his first visit, and he was a little anxious because he couldn't speak Japanese. How would he communicate with the people he came in contact with?

Since most taxi drivers do not speak English, someone suggested that it might be a good idea to carry with him something bearing the name of the hotel at which he would be staying written in Japanese. That was exactly what he did. As soon as he arrived in Japan he picked up a box of matches bearing the name and address of his hotel. Then he went sight-seeing.

Afterwards he got into a taxi and did as the friend suggested, he took the box of matches out of his pocket to show the driver where he wanted to go. There were a few awkward moments before the driver understood. Finally his face lit up. Quickly they sped away. Half an hour later, the taxi came to a screeching halt. The driver turned and beamed at his passenger, pointing out the window. There was only one problem. They had stopped, not in front of a hotel, but a match factory!

Have you ever had an experience like that? Someone will say something and for whatever reason you do not understand. It's as if they were speaking a foreign language. You want to go back to the hotel and instead find yourself in front of a match factory.

Sometimes our communication skills are lacking in the spiritual realm. The spiritual seems to be so foreign that we often end up at an undesired place. Sometimes those "undesired places" feel right at home because they are of the world, of not God. Let Central pursue spiritual communication with our Father through His Son and His Spirit.

FAMILY MATTERS

Our deepest sympathy to the Dickens Family on the loss of NEVA DICKENS. She passed away Thursday, January 22, 2009. ## YOUTH CORNER

Next Sunday is YOUTH SUNDAY. I know that everyone is excited about this very important day for our congregation. I will give Bruce a rest next week and talk to you about our youth program here at central. I will go over some of the very important things that our youth do, that you support, that helps them further their walk with Christ. I will then introduce our youth to you and we will talk about Valuing Our Youth. We will then take up a special contribution for our youth program. Some of our young men will participate in our services on Sunday morning as well. We all look forward to this special day.

LTC NEWS

LTC is fast approaching. We want to thank all of you for your help. We have some GREAT help this year, so we know that LTC will be a great success for our young people. LTC is April 10th, 11th and 12th. We have a lot to do to get prepared. Many of you have already accomplished a great deal. Each LTC participant needs to be ready for your coach to contact you for practice in each of your events. Today we will be doing power point here at the building starting at 3:00 p.m. So if you are in power point, please be here at 3:00.
