A WORD FROM BRUCE

ISTANBUL, Turkey (July 8) - First one sheep jumped to its death. Then stunned Turkish shepherds, who had left the herd to graze while they had breakfast, watched as nearly 1,500 others followed, each leaping off the same cliff, Turkish media reported.

In the end, 450 dead animals lay on top of one another in a billowy white pile, the Aksam newspaper said. Those who jumped later were saved as the pile got higher and the fall more cushioned, Aksam reported.

"There's nothing we can do. They're all wasted," Nevzat Bayhan, a member of one of 26 families whose sheep were grazing together in the herd, was quoted as saying by Aksam.

The estimated loss to families in the town of Gevas, located in Van province in eastern Turkey, tops $100,000.

Be sure you are following someone who knows where they are going! Not everyone who is going somewhere knows where they are going.

John 10:1-10

"I tell you the truth, the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. The man who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep. The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger's voice." Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

Eat The Frog Youth Corner by Matt

There is an old saying that says...."If the first thing you do when you wake up in the morning is eat a live frog, then nothing worse can happen for the rest of the day!" Well I think that's a pretty safe assumption. Brian Tracy, in his book Eat the Frog, says that your "Frog" should be the most difficult item on your things to do list, the one where you're most likely to procrastinate; because, if you eat it first, it'll give you energy and momentum for the rest of the day. But, if you don't and let him sit there on the plate and stare at you while you do a hundred unimportant things, it can drain your energy and you won't even know it.

God's hand shapes the world, and it shapes your life. So whatever you find yourself- whether on the mountaintop or in the darkest valley-remember that God is there, too, and he is ready to help you "eat your frog."

A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord determines his steps.
