A WORD FROM BRUCE

A college-football coach was faced with the possibility that his star player might be declared academically ineligible, so he pleaded with the math professor not to flunk the kid. "Tell you what, coach," said the professor, "I'll ask him a question in your presence. If he gets it right, I'll pass him." The athlete was called in, and the professor asked, "What's two and two?" "Four," replied the player. Frantically the coach cried, "Give him another chance! Give him another chance!"

I am so glad that our second chances do not depend on what we know but who we know. I am also glad that Jesus knows more than the football coach! Many times we feel guilty about sins that have already been taken care of by the blood of Christ. Surely we are still confident in His sacrifice!

Since we are confident in His work in heaven we are confident to continue His work on earth. Unfortunately, we allow our own minds, enemies, and even friends hold us captives to our past sins. I know all sins have consequences but not all consequences of sin are the same. Sometimes those consequences are manmade which cause us to be ineffective. Sometimes those consequences are spiritual which ought to cause godly sorrow and not worldly sorrow. Sometimes those spiritual or manmade consequences seem very difficult to bear but I know those difficulties bring character. I know God deals with those imposing manmade consequences and those who do not respond spiritually to God's consequences justly. Trust in God. Have confidence in God. Seek God, His kingdom and His righteousness. Seek the One who really does give second chances and really does have the right answers.

James 5:16 makes a promise that God intends to keep. When you pray earnestly, fervently, and often, great things will happen. Too many people, however, are too timid or too pessimistic to ask God to do big things. Don't count yourself among their number.

God can and will do great things through you if you have the courage to ask Him and the determination to keep asking Him. Don't expect Him to do all the work. When you do your part, He will do His part.

When a believing person prays, great things happen. James 5:16

Thanks for the prayers and the food that all of you sent with us on our LTC trip. We had a great time. Thanks also to our sponsors that went with us, we could not have done it without all of you. We will do our LTC presentation in a few weeks.

The Senior banquet is Sunday the 26th at 6:00 pm. There is a sign up sheet on the activity table for food. Please go by and sign up for what you can bring. Let's all get behind our Seniors and support them as they get ready to graduate.
