A WORD FROM BRUCE

The story of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the burning, fiery furnace is a favourite in the Old Testament and it has enjoyed its popularity since the earliest days in the Christian church when the first generation of Christians in Rome were being persecuted for their faith. The story was painted in the catacombs by believers persecuted by the Romans and has been an inspiration to all who have been oppressed. It is a story of rugged faith and uncompromising faithfulness to God.

We first meet Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in chapter 1 where as colleagues of Daniel they refused to defile themselves with the tainted royal food and wine, and now their commitment was again to be challenged. Perhaps this tells us that one spiritual victory is not the end: in fact each day sees us at the foot of a different mountain to climb. Every day we are subject to being tempted. May we, like Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be found faithful at the end of the day. May God give you strength, courage and wisdom as we live by faith.

YOUTH CORNER by Matt

Whether you realize it or not, opportunities are whirling around you like stars crossing the night sky. Beautiful to observe but too numerous to count. Yet you may be too wrapped up in the daily grind to notice. Summer time can be very busy for teenagers, and sometimes we put our brains on cruise control for the summer and we miss the opportunities that come along. Take time to step back from the challenges of everyday living so that you can focus your thoughts on two things:

- 1) The talents God has given you and the opportunities that He has placed before you.
- 2) God is leading you in the direction of those opportunities.

Your task is to watch carefully, to pray fervently, and to act accordingly.

Everything is possible to the one who believes
