GUESS WHO IS COMING TO DINNER!

Its that time of year to play "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner"! Here's how it works. It requires two Saturday evening commitments. The dates are Friday, November 10th and 17th. On one of those dates, you'll be a surprise dinner guest in someone's home. On the other date, you'll be the host. It's great fun and a wonderful way for us to get to know each other better.

A Word from Bruce

One day, a police officer pulls over a guy. "Is there a problem officer?" the man asks him. "No, there's no problem. I just noticed that you were driving so well that I wanted to give you this." the officer replies handing him over a $100 bill

"So, what are you going to get with that money?"

The driver takes a minute to think then says "Wow, uhh... I'll probably get myself a license."

The man in the passenger seat adds, "Don't pay attention to him, he's like that when he's drunk."

Another guy who was asleep in the backseat wakes up to see the cop and says, "See, I told you guys we wouldn't get far in a stolen car!"

Following that, there is a voice coming from the trunk, "Are we over the border yet?"

The cop fainted.

Obviously, things aren't always as they appear to be! It seems to be easy to pull the wool over the public's eye when it comes to being happily married. It can be faked in various ways.

Holding hands, opening the door, cleaning up, going out, saying nice things, etc ... in public but only the married couple knows what the real marriage is like when nobody is looking! Its kind of like what Jesus says about fake followers of God, "You are like white washed tombs, clean on the outside but full of dead men's bones on the inside." Or the example he gives of the cup being clean on the outside but dirty on the inside. Marriages can become that if we let them. A great way to keep those marriages clean, engaged, and fulfilling is to go the sink and wash the marriage cup. Keep it fresh and real in public and "behind closed doors". So ... how can we keep it fresh and new? How can we keep it from becoming old, cold and dull?

We will discuss s concept introduced to me a few years ago that seems to refresh and spark up marriages. It is called the Love Bank.

Dear Church Family,

Right now we are overwhelmed with emotions. You have been our Church family for so many years. We have been part of this Church family since 1940 and 1939. It has been a long time. TA's family moved to Tulia on January 15th of 1940. My parents were baptized in 1939. Myrtle Jennings and us were talking one time about when we became members of this Church family. We have been blessed by our time with you all. May God bless you each one. We have raised our families in the Church family. It is hard to tell you what each of you have meant to us. Thank you for the card shower. We will look and read them and probably cry. Thank you for the other many acts of kindness you have given us through the years. You all are truly our family. With all of our love and wishes for God to take care of you everyone.
